ELIGIBILITY, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Applicants must be classed as overseas fee paying status.
2. Scholarships will be used to offset tuition fees.
3. Applicants must be self-funded and are not eligible if they hold other sponsorship/scholarships. Applicants in receipt of a scholarship may not receive any other discount or tuition fee reduction.
4. Applicants must be enrolling on a full-time undergraduate degree course at Newman University College for the first time in September 2012.
5. Where there are more qualifying applicants than scholarships available, the scholarships will be awarded to those who achieve the highest academic merit.
6. The University College may use whatever means of assessment it thinks most appropriate in order to determine which candidates are worthy of recommendation for the award of a scholarship.
7. Successful candidates will be informed within 2 weeks of the application deadline and a reduced tuition fee will be levied at enrolment. Candidates must confirm acceptance of their scholarship, accept an offer of a place on a course and pay their £1500 deposit.
8. Scholarship holders, having accepted an award, are reasonably expected to co-operate in Newman University College recruitment activities and automatically agree to their names and details being released by the University's International Office for marketing purposes.
9. If it is deemed necessary for a Scholarship holder to suspend their studies, the scholarship will be held on university account and carried forward to the year of resumption of studies and the candidate will be expected to pay their personal contribution on a pro-rata basis.
10. The scholarship in subsequent years of study is subject to passing all modules at the first attempt each year and passing each academic year with a minimum of 60% or above across all your modules.
11. If in the view of the University College, a scholarship holder's progress is deemed to be unsatisfactory, the scholarship may be withdrawn. A scholarship may also be withdrawn on grounds of failure to comply with any of the conditions attached to the award. The candidate may be required to repay to the University any award which has been made, either in whole or in part, as determined by the Committee. If the scholar feels that such a withdrawal is unjustified s/he may appeal in writing to the Head of the International Office within 15 working days of the date of notification.
12. The University College reserves the right to make, amend, withdraw, suspend or cancel without notice these and such other Regulations as may be in force from time to time and such decisions shall be final.
